

AT: Creating Value Through Participation

Australian Rehabilitation & Assistive Technology Association National Conference

Monday 22 - Wednesday 24 September 2008, Adelaide, SA

1. Announcement Flier

On behalf of the conference organising committee, it is my pleasure to invite you to the 2008 ARATA National Conference, AT: Creating Value through Participation, to be held in Adelaide, SA, from 22-24 September 2008.

The 2008 ARATA conference will focus on enhancing, and recognising, the value of participation in society of people with disabilities and those who are ageing, through technology. In keeping with world trends, all aspects of human activity will be considered – home, school, work and leisure. Participants will be able to experience the creative side of older people and those with disabilities that is possible through the effective use of technology. The experience of users themselves will be a valuable part of this event.

I look forward to welcoming you back to Adelaide for ARATA 2008.

Lloyd Walker
Conference Chair
